August 2020 Global & Ministry Payer News Digest

Dear Praying friends, associates and partners

Two of our staff members have tested positive speaking from Nehemiah in the past few weeks on how to stay faithfully On Duty, Despite the Covid. They inspired my reading that book again. However, it was Matthew Henry note on Nehemiah's 6th chapter in his Concise Commentary on the Whole Bible that I wish to here paraphrase and share with you:

“Let those who are tempted to idle meetings...be at it. We have work to do, and must not neglect it. We must not succumb to repeated urgency to do anything sinful or imprudent; but when attacked with the same temptation to idleness, must resist it with the same reason and resolution. Malicious people often project their position as that of many. We must stay faithfully on all known duty even if we would be wrongly defined. We know God's people, though loaded with reproach, are not really low in reputation as some would have them thought to be.

When we are assailed, like Nehemiah, we must lift up our hearts to Heaven in a short prayer. When, in our Christian work and warfare, we enter upon any service or conflict, this is a good prayer, I have such a duty to do, such a temptation to grapple with; now, therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.”

This August and always, may the Lord find us faithful in our resolve, dependence on His power and trusting in His covering. Please help us to pray.

Timothy Olonade, Team Leader
